Monthly CFO support

A CFO working hand-in-hand with the CEO and leadership team, month after month — strategic finance leadership without a full-time CFO's cost.

Finance strategy for the next 12–24 months

Turn your business plan into a costed roadmap: targets, milestones, funding needs and the decisions that unlock each stage.

Cash, margin and cost command

A rolling 13-week cash view, a clear read on where margin is won or lost, and early warning before a problem reaches the bank.

Growth, pricing and investment decisions

Test the numbers behind expansion, new markets, new products, acquisitions and capital spend before you commit.

Banking, financing and investor relationships

Own the lender conversation: structure the facility, prepare the financial pack, negotiate terms, and keep investors informed.

Board-grade reporting and KPIs

Monthly management packs and a small set of KPIs that you, your board and your partners can act on.

Risk, controls and compliance oversight

Keep your ZATCA, VAT, Zakat, IFRS and audit position in order, with the risks that could hurt the business surfaced early.

Finance team leadership and AI enablement

Structure, coach and lead your finance function, with AI applied to reporting and workflows so your team moves faster.

A CFO in the room when decisions are taken

Regular working sessions with you and your leadership team, present at the moments that actually matter.

Your next decision deserves a CFO's view.
